Old Business

Library Exhibit - The Fiber and Textiles exhibit will run through early January. Pete spoke with Nolene's mom, and confirmed that her paintings will be shown beginning in January, Boyd's photos will be shown beginning in April (exact dates to be determined). Both are very excited.

Summer Celebration - Pete is contacting potential performers. The first meeting will occur in January.

Plaques for Downtown- Cari and Jean will meet to research costs and production options.

Public Art for Council Chambers - Gloria will report in December

Fall Conversation Program - Both conversations went well. 8 attendees at the first one, 15 at the 2nd one. Final conversation will occur on December 6th.

Art on Poles (new art opportunity) - All will research to find examples to dress up the poles that have had the parking signs removed. Pete will try to get pictures, and we'll plan to have more discussion on the level of art (3dimensional?).

Arts Commission Retreat - Saturday, November 12 at City Hall.

Mosaic Fountain - Pete talked to Mimi, and she would also like to have the fountain protected in some way. Possibly repair and relocate it to library or other public location? Replace it with something that artistically represents water (stone column with mosaic on it?). Research is needed on costs to repair, move, replace, etc., as well as logistics for all items. More conversation needed.

Vacancy on commission - Scott will be turning in his application to the city this week. We invited him to the retreat, as well.
