

WHAT MAKES ESTACADA UNIQUE?

A forest-grown Christmas tree or relaxed family canoeing; wild whitewater rafting or casual mural viewing; famed geocaching or challenging disc golf; mushroom hunting, trail trekking and motorcycle touring. Six wild and scenic rivers, a million acres of untamed wilderness and nine parks nearby. Find the unexpected adventure, or discover uncommon art. All right next door.

WHO WILL ENJOY ESTACADA?

For this generation or the next, long-time residents or new arrivals, Estacada's the place to relax, explore, connect and get outdoors – river rats, weekend warriors, hard-core cyclists, adrenaline junkies and hot springs soakers. Or families looking for water playtime, campers going rough, friends ready to unwind and cast a line. Art to see, artists to learn from, unique treasures to take home. Any age, any time, any one will find new ways to play, unforgettable adventures and the unexpected far from city crowds and urban chaos. Breathe deeply, make memories, press “restart” on your everyday life.

WHAT WILL YOU FIND IN ESTACADA?

Escape to Estacada. Go from the roar of traffic to the rhythm of the river. Grab two fat tires or one big paddle. Cycle, paddle, float, ramble or climb. Immerse yourself in trees, sky, water; summer's greens and winter's whites. Or wander through town to discover our history in murals, explore galleries and stop for a local craft beer. Events and festivals, celebrations, concerts and shows await. It's an untamed, choose-your-own-adventure place with acres and acres of forest and miles and miles of river right here. A bit quirky, definitely different, and certainly unforgettable.

Acres of forest to trek & explore close by

- ◆ A million acres of the Mt. Hood National Forest are out the back door, and 100 miles of rivers are yours to explore.
- ◆ Hike or backpack into two designated wilderness areas on 45 miles of quiet and peaceful no-motors-allowed trails.
- ◆ Fire up the OHV or snowmobile to power over 25 miles of trails just for you, around the mountain and through the woods.

Artists and art rise above the expected

- ◆ Art and crafts, sculpture and outdoor murals, Estacada's art and artists offer an uncommon perspective.
- ◆ Experience the diverse work of more than 100 painters, writers, jewelers, sculptors, quilters, potters, musicians, weavers, actors, artists and artisans who call Estacada home.
- ◆ Festivals for fungus, fireworks, fairs, celebrations, auctions and runs—there's music, art & live performances for any age and anyone. Join us!

The river is yours, come play

- ◆ Ride raging rapids or paddle in ripples—the Clackamas runs right through our town. Come play.
- ◆ Seven campgrounds along the Clackamas offer 300 sites to sleep under the stars after a day on ... or in... the water.
- ◆ Boats, rafts, innertubes, paddleboards, kayaks, canoes—to paddle, explore, fish, picnic, look for wildlife or just cool off in six easy-to-get-to rivers and creeks.